FUOCO FASTEST IN ROOKIE TEST

Euronova Racing were present at Franciacorta yesterday for the Formula Abarth rookie test organized by the ACI-CSAI. The team made all three of its Tatuus FA010 cars available for the test, and youngsters Antonio Fuoco, Kimmy Larsson and Filippo Laghi were allocated to the team. When Laghi was unable to make the test due to a school commitment Alessandra Brena stepped in to replace him – using the test as her first opportunity to get back in a racing car after injury forced her to sit out the last races of the Italian Championship.

All three drivers completed 70 laps of the Franciacorta circuit during the two sessions. Fuoco emerged as the fastest of the seventeen drivers taking part in the test, whilst Larsson ended the day in 5th and Brena in 9th place.

Vincenzo Sospiri: I was really impressed by the driver's yesterday. They all had a very mature approach to the test and followed the instructions of the team and engineers perfectly. For Fuoco it was his first time at Franciacorta and for Larsson it was his first time in a Formula Abarth and his first time at Franciacorta so they both did a really good job and showed a lot of promise for the future.
